SADIE'S SCHEME,

Twelve-year-old Girl Steals $60,000 and Starts for Enrope.

Boston, Sept. 22.—A twelve-year old girl of Framingham, on Friday, packed her valisce with diamonds and negotiable bonds to the amount of $60,000, belonging to her mother, a wealthy lady, and started for Boston to meet a young man and elope with him. She was arrested Saturs day and the valuables recovered. The girl was taken home. The amount stolen was divided as follows: Fifteen thousand dollars in bank bills, three $1,000 U. S. bonds. $7,000 worth of diamonds, and $35, 000 worth of railroad stocks. The girls name is Sadie Robinson, and she is the daughter of C. E. Robinson. Sadie'e mind has been filled with nonsensical ideas about renawav marriages. When charged with stealing the valuables she at first inlignantly denied it, but subsequently confessed. She said that on Fris day morning she took the valise with her when she went to school in Boston, and had given it to a woman. She told a blood-curdling story about having her life threatened unless she complied with the demand for money. She said she met a woman in Albany Station and gave her the valise containing the valuables. The valise and valuables were recovered in a drug storewhere Sadie had left them, promising to call for them to-day. She confessed she loved a young man whose name she refused to give, and had taken the money with the intention of "The platform," he concludes, means protection to American inlustry and labor, and the rule upon which that protection to American ndustry and labor, and the rule apon which that protection is to be neasured and adjusted is just, sound and wise. There never will be any ermanent success for Democracy until this doctrine and policy is recognized as the sound principle of tariff taxation." Here, in concise and clear lanange, is the opinion of an able urist, one of the clearest-headed men in the State, and a Democrat of unimpeachable party fealty.

"My object in writing is to ask season if your friends would dere to establish a bank at Little Rock? It will be to some extent a natter of favoritism as to who gets the banks in the several localities, and it will be in my power to 'cast a anchor to the windward' in your shall, if you desire it."-Blaine to

Keep it before the people, That four hundred millions of dollars are ying idle in the treasury, which were collected from the people wrongfully, and no interest is being paid on it; and that since the war six thousand millions of dollars have been collected from the people, and

"You can do me a great favor. * * I want you to send me a letter meh as the enclosed draft. * * It will be a favor I shall never forget. * * * Regard this letter as strictly sonfidential. New or Graphic: The Republican National Committee formally recognizes the Mahone State Committee of Virginia as the regular Republican organization of that State, and endorses its electoral ticket and advises all Republicans to support it. This, notwithstand ing the fact that Gov. Cameron, Senator Riddleberger, John Wise and other Readjusters, to say nothing of the Straight-outs, repudiate Mahone and declare that they will have nothing further to do with him.
